In this workshop, acclaimed colored pencil artist Kristy Kutch will teach fascinating "painterly" techniques for both "traditional" (waxy) and watercolor pencils, as well as watercolor wax pastels (artist-grade watercolor crayons). Explore a wide range of surfaces generously provided by Stonehenge, Strathmore, Ampersand and Armadillo Art companies. Demonstrations, individual attention, and a cache of take-home supplies - papers, pencils and more will be distributed. We'll even provide a tote bag for all your goodies. (You will need it! We're not exaggerating!)

- Day One is devoted to basic waxy colored pencil on white surfaces such as Bristol board, Stonehenge paper, 4-ply museum board, etc. (samples provided).
- Day Two involves colored pencil on toned surfaces, such as Art Spectrum Colourfix paper and Ampersand Pastelbord (samples provided). Techniques for heat-blending with a heat gun and brush-blending with a stencil brush or pastel blending brush will also be covered.
- Day Three includes watersoluble techniques with watercolor pencils as well as watercolor wax pastels (samples provided for students).
